Personalized learning powered by your students' curiosity

Before tour, you'll connect your personal interests and passions to your destination by developing an essential question to investigate while traveling.

On tour, continue to explore your question as you collect meaningful evidence through taking notes, interviewing locals, and visiting cultural sites.

After tour, you'll reflect through a creative project. This project is eligible for high school or college credit, a great asset for college applications, and an awesome way to show friends and family everything you experienced out in the world.

What are you responsible for?

- Spending money

For additional tour experiences, free time activities, souvenirs, beverages, lunches and snacks ($30-$65 per day)

- Tips

For your Tour Director, bus driver and local guides (around $10 per day)

- Airport baggage fees

- Passport and/or visa fees

"My daughter had the best time, made great friends and fell in love with Europe. It was life changing for her."

JILL B., PARENT

Your tour donation page

A quick and easy way to raise money for your tour

How it works

- Located on your personal EF website
- Share your donation page on social media or via email with friends and family members you'd like to ask for support
- All donations are automatically added to your account

The screenshot shows a tablet displaying the EF Educational Tours donation page. The page has a header with the EF logo and 'Educational Tours'. Below the header is a section titled 'Help me go on the trip of a lifetime!' with a subtext: 'The planning is on me, a trip with EF Tours. All the help of my family, friends and community I need. I can get there. Please consider making a one-time contribution.' There is a progress bar showing the current amount raised ($0) and the goal ($4,000). Below the progress bar are two radio buttons: 'Pay by credit or credit card' (selected) and 'Pay by check or money order'. The form includes fields for 'Credit card number', 'Expiration date' (set to July 2016), 'Cardholder first name', 'Cardholder last name', 'Cardholder zip code', and 'Billing email address'. At the bottom, there are two radio buttons: 'Add the tour to my EF account' (selected) and 'I wish to remain anonymous'. A 'Pay now' button is also visible.
